

Socialization And Sexuality

A Comprehensive Training Guide

Table of Contents

Preface by Ann Craft

Welcome from the Author

Chapter 1: Introduction To Training Design And Content

Establishing Rapport
Clarifying Goals and Expectations
Dispelling Myths
Logistics of Setting Up Training

Chapter 2: Understanding The Sexuality of People With Disabilities That Hinder Learning

Language and Labeling
Historical Perspectives
Misinformation and Misconceptions
Rationale for Sex Education and Counseling
Training Exercise and Questionnaire

Chapter 3: Updates On Sexuality

Male and Female Anatomy, Reproduction, Genetic Counseling
Sexual Life Cycle, Human Sexual Response
Sexual Health, Sexually Transmitted Diseases, AIDS
Tests and Training Exercises

Chapter 4: Attitudes About Sexuality: Personal Exploration

Psychosocial Development
Becoming Comfortable and Developing Rational Attitudes
Group Discussion, Values Clarification
Training Exercises and Attitudinal Questionnaire

Chapter 5: Sexuality Education

Part 1: Goals of Sex Education
General Population Sex Education
Meeting Specific Educational Needs
The Sex Education Teacher
Content, Teaching Methods, and Resources

Exercises and A Test for Students
Part 2: Guidelines for Curriculum Design
Suggested Topics

Chapter 6: Social Skills And Relationships

Developing Social Skills and Social Skillfulness
Friendship, Dating, Marriage and Parenthood
Sexual Orientation: Homosexuality
Training Exercises

Chapter 7: Sexuality Counseling

The Role of the Counselor; Potential Problems and Concerns
Counseling on Different Levels: PLISSIT Model
Special Skills and Resources
Training Exercises

Chapter 8: Sexual Behaviors

Masturbation
Legal and Moral Codes Involving Sexuality
Inappropriate Sexual Behavior
Sexual Offenders: Assessment and Treatment
Training Exercises

Chapter 9: Sexual Abuse And Informed Consent

Part 1: Sexual Abuse
Workshop and Resources for Prevention of Sexual Abuse
Part 2: Counseling Abuse Victims with Disabilities
Indications of Abuse and Reporting Abuse
Training Exercises
Part 3: Informed Consent
Harmonizing Sexual Rights and Protection from Harm
Defining Informed Consent for Sexual Activities
Informed Consent for Medical Procedures
Training Exercises

Chapter 10: Reproduction Choices (Birth Control)

Preparation for Birth Control Service
Birth Control Methods-Advantages and Disadvantages of Each Sterilization. Abortion
Training Activities. Test on Birth Control

Chapter 11: Special Consideration Relating To Living Centers

Part 1: Goal of Consistency and Training All Staff
Implementation of Residential Programs
Common Concerns, Common Challenges
Part 2: Training for Policy and Procedure Development
Policy Formation and Implementation Workshop
Steps for Writing Policies and Procedures

Chapter 12: Working With Parents And Families

Common Attitudes of Parents: Insights and Options
Parents and Professionals Working Together
Common Questions and Answers
Parent Education and Support
Training Exercises and Questionnaires

Chapter 13: Sexuality Programs And Evaluation

Part 1: Setting Up Sexuality Programs
Part 2: Evaluation of Training
Self Evaluation for Teachers

Chapter 14: Assessments

Systematic Assessment Goals
Examples and Samples of Assessment Methods
Assessing Sex Offenders
Examples of Assessing Sex Offenders

Bibliographies

Information on Books, Articles, and Resource Materials
List of Concerned Agencies and Sources of Instructional Materials
ASSECT Certification Requirements